Tuesday April 23, 10AM- 2PM Teddy Bear Fair! An important event for screening young children from ages 0 – 10 years old. Children check in and receive a stuffed toy and a passport for various stations. Each station will be staffed with a health professional that will work with each child to address important health matters. The stations will cover things such as; height & weight, motor skill development, nutrition, safety, dental health, speech, and general wellness. This fair is a great opportunity for families to gather important information as well as identify any concerns that may need further investigation or support Tuesday April 23, 2013 Everyone is invited to The O'Chiese Community center to hear a "Message of Hope and Healing". Two courageous men share their stories of overcoming victimization. The first speaker, First Nations activist Mike Gladue @ 3PM. Dinner @ 5pm, Theo Fleury at 6PM. Watch for posters!

Mike Gladue is originally from Edmonton — he spent nearly two decades struggling with drugs and alcohol, coping with sexual abuse he endured as a child. He spent time in and out of jail, but eventually found traditional ceremonies and became the founder of the Seven Generations Healing Network.

"Theo" Fleury (born June 29, 1968) is a Canadian former professional ice hockey player for the Calgary Flames, Colorado Avalanche, New York Rangers, and Chicago Blackhawks of the National Hockey League (NHL), Tappara of Finland's SM-liiga, and the Belfast Giants of the UK's Elite Ice Hockey League. He was drafted by the Flames in the 8th round, 166th overall, at the 1987 NHL Entry Draft, and played over 1,000 games in the NHL between 1989 and 2003.

He twice represented Canada at the Winter Olympics, winning a gold medal in 2002. Throughout his career, he battled drug and alcohol addictions that ultimately forced him out of the NHL in 2003, when he was only 35 years old. Outside of hockey, Fleury overcame his addictions, operated a concrete business in Calgary with his family, and filmed a pilot for a reality television show based around it. Fleury has become an advocate for sexual abuse victims and developed a career as a public speaker.
