Student Attendance

School staff have noticed that there are quite a few students who are regularly showing up late to school. Students are missing valuable instructional time when they show up late. It is also very disruptive to the class when students are showing up late. Parents need to try to ensure that students get to their bus on time in the morning, so that they will have the greatest opportunity to be successful in school.

Message from the Principal

Hello parents and guardians! Thank you for being a part of your student's education. When you visit the school it shows us that you are involved with their education pathway. Your involvement shows that you are a proactive in the learning process and someone who cares about the student's future. Please be sure to visit the front office and allow us to help you with your needs. We can call the student to the office or find someone to help you to the appropriate classroom.

Mr. Sullivan

Road to Freedom Workshop

On October 11-13, Sunchild First Nation School had the tremendous opportunity to participate in the Road to Freedom workshop led by Kyle Nobess, Nicole, and brother, Jesse. Over just two days a group of twelve students did a cold read of a script, memorized it all, rehearsed, then filmed a short film. They did eight long hours of work – trying their hands at some camera work, learning how to act (aka not looking right at the camera), and coming up with new things to add to a screenplay. All this to create a six minute video, but as the students suggested – it was worth the work! One student said: "It was a great opportunity to show people what we can do." Another claimed: "It was inspiring to work with Kyle, Jesse, and Nicole."

It was a great experience for the students and our school. It has got everyone talking and laughing which is the main purpose of film anyways – isn't it? If you would like to see the video, please find it online at <https://www.facebook.com/roadtofreedomontour/>
